

SUBJECT TITLE	: PROJECT WORK AND SEMINAR
SUBJECT CODE	: 6002
PERIODS/WEEK	: 6
PERIODS/ SEMESTER	: 108
CREDITS	: 10

PROJECT AND SEMINAR
(ENGINEERING/TECHNOLOGY PROGRAMMES)
PART I – SEMINAR

1. To have an exposure to an innovative area of Technology/Information.
2. To develop presentation skills.
3. To develop creative interaction among listners.
4. To learn to appreciate your peers and give positive feedback.

Topic Selection:

1. Select topics related to Industry/Technology/allied area, but not part of the curriculum.
2. Repetition of topics not permitted.

Presentation:

Presentation shall be for at least 15 minutes. Presentation is to be made with audio visual aids.

Report:

A rough report of the seminar shall be submitted at least 3 working days before presentation. The fair report shall be submitted within one week after the presentation.

The report shall include:

1. Abstract
2. Actual content
3. Reference

PART II – PROJECT WORK

Objectives:

1. To develop Prototype/Model of a product.
2. To learn financial planning.
3. To enhance team spirit and creative talents for achieving a goal.

Selection of Project:

1. Select programme related project which has relevance to today's industry, preferably with a social relevance.
2. Suggested type of Projects :
 - a) Design/Evolution/Modification of a new Machine/Equipment/Software
 - b) Major overhauling of a Plant/Machinery/Equipment
 - c) Solving an Industrial technical problem
 - d) Providing a technical service to Industry/Establishment of social service
 - e) Research type project
 - f) Market research
 - g) Entrepreneurship development
3. Project should be feasible at Diploma level and economically viable
4. Only projects which can be developed by the Diploma students need be selected. Support of external agencies is not permitted

Guidelines for Project Work:

1. Suitable batches may be formed with 3 – 5 students per batch
2. The programme of the project work should be monitored at least once a week and progress may be documented
3. Involvement of each student should be ensured

Format for the preparation of Project work :

1. Cover Page as per format
2. Acknowledgement
3. Certificate of the Project Guide
4. Synopsis of the Project
5. Main Report
 - Objective & Scope of the Project
 - Theoretical Background
 - Definition of Problem
 - Methodology adopted, System Implementation & Details Hardware/Software/Machinery/Equipment/used

PROJECT AND SEMINAR
(MANAGEMENT PROGRAMMES)
PART I - SEMINAR

1. To have an exposure to an innovative area of Management/Allied areas
2. To develop presentation skills.
3. To develop creative interaction among listeners.
4. To learn to appreciate your peers and give positive feedback.

Topic Selection :

1. Select topics related to Management /allied area, but not part of the curriculum.
2. Repetition of topics not permitted.

Presentation :

Presentation shall be for at least 15 minutes. Presentation is to be made with audio visual aids.

Report :

A rough report of the seminar, shall be submitted at least 3 working days before presentation. The fair report shall be submitted within one week after the presentation.

The report shall include :

1. Abstract
2. Actual content
3. Reference

PART II – PROJECT WORK

Objectives :

1. To understand real life situations in business organisations and to identify and study a problem facing by the organisation in any areas of management.
2. To apply the rational decision making process through the business research methods in the selected problem.
3. To enhance team spirit and creative talents for achieving a goal.

Selection of Project :

1. Select programme related project which has relevance to today's industry.
2. Suggested type of Projects :
 - Any topic /Problem relating to functional / general areas of management.
3. Project should be feasible at Diploma level and economically viable.
4. Only projects which can be developed by the Diploma students need be selected. Support of external agencies is not permitted

Guidelines for Project Work :

1. Suitable batches may be formed with 3 – 5 students per batch
2. The programme of the project work should be monitored at least once a week and progress may be documented.
3. Involvement of each student should be ensured

Format for the preparation of Project work :

- As per format specified in the subject Business Research Methods (Objective 4.1.2)

Assessment for project work

SI No	Criteria Component	Weightage(%)
1	Relevance of topic	10
2	Knowledge of Methodology	20
3	Role of Individual in the team	20
4	Findings of the study	20
5	Viva voce	20
6	Project Report	10